

Useful Links – Year 1

Here are some useful links to support your child's learning at home:

- www.topmarks.co.uk for Literacy and Numeracy games
- www.ictgames.com again for good Literacy and Numeracy games
- <http://www.woodlands-junior.kent.sch.uk/> this has a fantastic Literacy and Numeracy area.
- www.phonicsplay.co.uk for all things phonics based!
- <http://www.sebastianswan.org.uk/> these are some great interactive big books for Science learning
- http://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/5_7/hectorsworld/ for internet safety cartoons and activities
- <http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/laac/> the Little Animals Activity Centre is useful for Literacy and Numeracy activities
- <http://www.biiktrust.org.uk/books-and-reading/children/best-book-guide/> this is great for seeing what new books are out there. It is arranged by theme or topic such as poetry, non-fiction, fairy tale, myth etc.
- <http://fileservr.booktrust.org.uk/usr/resources/772/booktrust-best-book-guide-2012-v7.pdf> the 2012 Best Book guide from the Book Trust with lots of ideas for new and prize winning books
- <http://nrich.maths.org/primary-lower> really good problem solving activities linked to the University of Cambridge Millennium Maths Project
- <http://roythezebra.com> for activities relating to punctuation
- http://www.bbc.co.uk/school/scienceclips/ages/5_6/sorting_using_mate.shtml for activities relating to materials
- http://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/ks1/literacy/making_sentences/play/ an activity to practise making sentences